

If the world were completely honest, it would be an easier place to live, work and play, especially for the honest people. We formed "Mature Party," a nice, classy group, because we saw a real need. The idea was to start a fun - comfortable - mature group of local people who are curvy and or who appreciate women with curves. Unfortunately, 2+ years of effort, and being highly organized, makes us "appear" as a company. Many people learn about us from media (Facebook / Craigslist) that is often used by "scammers" and therefore we sometimes get lumped in that mix. Nothing could be further from the truth. To alleviate concerns, I have written the following to address most common questions.

Concern	Comment
I/We are looking for local people only.	How you can meet people (in person) hundreds, if not thousands of miles away? Because of requests from members, we have established local groups throughout the US. However, the real intent of our group is to meet local people to establish new friends and relationships.
I/we are seeking just one couple. Or I/we are seeking just one bi-person.	Our group is about establishing relationships. The misconception is it is all about big parties with lots of people. That is by far the minority of activity. Most members seek just a few close friends. If they choose to come to an event, it is nice, because they already know other in attendance.
I/we are not into group play. Or I/we are new and want to go slow.	Our group, is for members, exactly what they specifically seek. Some seek to just go to meet & greets, others seek to only meet for private gatherings. Many members just get the newsletter. Some members just want to come to larger parties. This group is the perfect group for those ages 35+ who desire specific activities. Member's comfort is our #1 concern.
I am over age 35, but my partner is not a BBW.	We love all people (age 35+) and believe our attention to detail reinforces who we are...Mature, Classy, Sexy, Fun, Inclusive, and Exclusive. We have members of all shapes & sizes, which make us a great for all.
I am over age 35, but my partner is not.	We have members from ages 35 to 75. We do not have many rules; other then we seek members how act in a mature classy manor. However, we only allow members who are over the age of 35.
I am a single man and I want to join.	Unlike SLS (and other groups of our nature), we keep our single men to less than 5% of our total group. SLS has over 50% single men and other groups are up to 80%. All of our single men are invited only and are interviewed / screened. Each (invited man) must complete an orientation
We are worried about sharing our email.	As stated above, member's comfort is our #1 concern. We want members comfortable with the fact that we will never share personal information and consistently delete online information / chat from the website.
There must be a catch. Is there a subscription like SLS?	I started this document talking about scams. We are honest and I am a real person. Some people (after they get to know us) offer contributions to help with website expenses, but the newsletter and website access is free at all times. Many parties, when hosted by a member are also free.

I hope this document helps address common questions and concerns. Join us and enjoy. Make this group be for you what you seek and desire. Written by Brenda / March 2017
